

HOME INVASION

(MONO / ADJALA-TOSORONTIO TOWNSHIP, ON.) On January 27th, 2009 at approximately 4:08 p.m. officers from Nottawasaga OPP Crime Unit, Nottawasaga, Dufferin and Caledon OPP detachments responded to a residence located on the Mono Adjala Townline south of the 5th Sideroad of Adjala Tosorontio Twp where a violent home invasion had just occurred. The Victim called the police from a nearby gas station as the suspects had cut the residential phone lines.

The investigation revealed that the 57 year old male victim and his 39 year old female passenger were returning home around 4 p.m. and found a grey Dodge Mini van in their driveway and were immediately confronted by assailants wearing balaclavas with firearms. The assailants directed the victim and female inside the residence where the victim was tied up and assaulted.

The male victim was able to provide a partial plate as AYSV on the vehicle and was able to provide descriptions of 3 non white suspects.

Stolen from the victim was $500 cash in Canadian denominations, and a 22 caliber rifle having the same appearance as a M16 (engraved with name of the victim). No serial numbers were available from the firearm.

The male victim sustained serious injuries to his face requiring medical attention and he was transported by ambulance to Headwaters Hospital in Orangeville for treatment where he was later released. The female was not injured.

The suspects are described as follows:

Suspect 1; Slim /5' 11 / short hair /black jacket/ light colored dark skin, mid 20's, no accent

Suspect 2; stocky build / blue jacket/ same skin coloring / mid 20's

Suspect 3; Muscular build, 5' 11/ thin beard around lower chin / black jacket with human skulls on back of the jacket.
